

Keel-billed Toucan

The Keel-billed Toucan is a colorful South American bird with a very large bill. Its plumage is mainly black with a yellow neck and chest. It has blue feet and red feathers at the top of its tail. The bill is mostly green with a red tip and orange sides.

For the exact colors see: www.birdorable.com